Re: Request for Reconsideration of Public Records Order
Oregon Commission for the Blind Records

Dear Mr. Bowmer:

The Attorney General received your request for reconsideration of the Public Records Order issued on October 3, 2000, denying your petition to require the Oregon Commission for the Blind (OCB) to waive its fees in relation to your request for a copy of records in your OCB file. Your request for reconsideration, outlining the reasons why a waiver of fees is in the public interest, contains information that may not have been available to the OCB when it denied your request for a complete waiver. Because the Public Records Law places the discretion to waive fees with the OCB rather than the Attorney General, we forwarded your reconsideration request to the OCB for its consideration. ORS 192.440(4).

After reviewing your request for reconsideration, Charles C. Young, OCB Administrator, informed us that the OCB has decided to provide you with a copy of the records contained in your OCB file without charge. It is our understanding from Mr. Young that you should receive the copied records some time next week.

Sincerely,

DAVID SCHUMAN
Deputy Attorney General
