Re: Petition for Reconsideration
Oregon Department of Corrections
DOJ File No. 281011-GA0114-15

Dear Mr. Donohue:

On August 17, 2015, the Attorney General received a letter from you in response to this office's order of July 27, 2015, which denied your petition for an order requiring the Oregon Department of Corrections (ODOC) to provide you a copy of video of your "chow hall altercation on 11/22/13." Your letter again asks the Attorney General to order ODOC to provide you with a copy of the video. Because we denied your petition for disclosure of those records in our July 27, 2015 order, we treat your August 17, 2015 letter as a request for reconsideration of that order. Having reviewed your letter, we find no basis to reconsider our prior conclusion that ODOC properly relied on ORS 192.502(5) to deny your request to disclose the video under the Public Records Law.

Your request that we reconsider our order of July 27, 2015 is respectfully denied.

Sincerely,

FREDERICK M. BOSS
Deputy Attorney General
