Re: Request for Attorney General Order of Public Records Disclosure

Dear Mr. Gerber:

This letter responds to your March 6, 1987 written request that the Attorney General order the Board of Accountancy to make particular public records available for your inspection. The Department of Justice received your letter on March 6, 1987. We conclude that your request is moot.

After we received your letter, the Board of Accountancy told Assistant Attorney General Arnold Silver that copies of the documents you and Mr. Engman wished to inspect were mailed to you on March 9, 1987. For this reason, we conclude that no further action on your request is required.

Please contact Assistant Attorney General Silver (229-5725) or me (378-6002) if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

James E. Mountain Jr.
