Re: Petition for Public Records Disclosure Order
Oregon State Police
DOJ File No.: 257001-GA0037-22

Dear Ms. Troyer:

This letter is the Attorney General's order responding to your petition for disclosure under the Oregon Public Records Law, ORS 192.311 to 192.478. Your petition asks the Attorney General to order the Oregon State Police (OSP) to disclose a report relating to a 2005 house fire. Specifically, you seek "SP05 368 160, by Det. Hakim (not Det. Greer's replacement of the report in 2009)."

In response to your petition, we contacted Laura Heathcock, OSP Central Records Section Administrative Specialist. She informed us that OSP does not possess a 2005 report prepared by Detective Hakim relating to the house fire. She explained that the only report OSP maintains by that number is the report prepared by Detective Greer in 2009, which you specified that you are not seeking. Under the circumstances, we must respectfully dismiss your petition because OSP has not denied your request and we cannot order OSP to disclose a report that does not exist.

Sincerely,

Lisa M. Udland
