Re: Petition for Attorney General's Public Records Disclosure Order

Dear Mr. Guzman:

This letter responds to your petition, dated September 23, 1987, seeking an Attorney General's order directing the Oregon Department of Education to disclose certain public records to you. Our office received your petition on September 24, 1987. We believe your petition is moot because the Education Department is now in the process of disclosing to you the information you seek to inspect.

On September 28, 1987, I was advised by Assistant Attorney General Joe McKeever that, on the advice of counsel, the Oregon Department of Education would disclose to you a school bus accident report. Consequently, there is no need for the Attorney General to consider your request to order the Department to make such disclosure.

If the information you seek has not yet been disclosed to you, or if you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Very truly yours,

James E. Mountain Jr.
