SUBJECT	RE: Records Request Received 10/27/2026 - Robert Samuel White

Public Records Officer,

On November 4, 2026, you wrote: “The results were downloaded on November 4, 2026, and contained no records responsive to your request.”1 The screenshot under that sentence is not a result. It is the “Records requested” paragraph of my request.2 It shows no count, no export, and no search report.

The query is not your November 2 query with one term added. On November 2, 2026, you sent this query: “(("threat assessment" OR "situational awareness" OR "welfare check" OR "grievance")) (c:c) (((Participants:kyle.kennedy@osp.oregon.gov) OR (Participants:osppio@osp.oregon.gov))) AND (Date>2023-01-01)”.3 On November 4, 2026, you sent this one: “(("threat assessment") (c:s) ("situational awareness") (c:s) ("knock and talk") (c:s) (grievance) (c:s) ("welfare check")) (c:c) (Date>2023-01-01) AND (((Participants:kyle.kennedy@osp.oregon.gov) OR (Participants:osppio@osp.oregon.gov)))”.1 The terms once joined by OR are now joined by “(c:s)”. “grievance” has lost its quotation marks. The date has moved ahead of the addresses. You wrote that this is how “The above screenshot in SQL is written”: it is your text, not the query as the system saved it, and it is not SQL. Your screenshot names what it is: “keyword query language.”1 I have written SQL for nearly forty years. Neither letter shows the mailboxes searched, and neither shows a count.

Both queries search after January 1, 2023: “(Date>2023-01-01)”, and in your screenshot, “After” “Jan 1, 2023”.1 On November 3, 2026, you wrote that “the SQL query was set to return only results after January 1, 2023.”4 My request’s date range is “January 1, 2023, to the date of search.”2 A search after January 1, 2023, leaves out January 1, 2023.

You wrote: “Though your first request was simple.”1 You ran it on November 3 and downloaded its results on November 4. Run it again from January 1, 2023, inclusive, and send me what the system reports: the query as the system saved it, the mailboxes searched, the count of items, and the export or search report. Follow the statute [ORS 192.329(2)(a) <https://gcc02.safelinks.protection.outlook.com/?url=https%3A%2F%2Fopenrecordsoregon.org%2Fr%2FXASFF6JN%2FTCJM&data=05%7C02%7C[DSL Staff]

Those are also records my second request asks for: the records of the searches for the first.5

If your next answer does not include them, I will petition the Attorney General for a Public Records

Thank you for your contribution to the record.

Respectfully,
