SUBJECT	Re: {EXTERNAL E-MAIL}Re: The Attorney General's public records orders

Hey friend,

Thanks for the email, but unfortunately, we will not be reporting on this for the following reasons.

1.
The Columbian doesn't report on Oregon news, unless there are extenuating circumstances that has a Clark County connection. We are a Vancouver, Washington based news outlet.
2.
The records requested here are vague, and it feels as though there is missing information, but if you do pursue this further to Oregon outlets, you should include more information about the WHY these records are being requested. Asking for emails that employees of the Oregon Department of Corrections (ODOC) had written about him is an odd request in that it appears to be missing some context. I personally wouldn't report on something like this unless I had more information about the WHY behind it all.
3.
If this were to be pursued as a story about how Oregon handles records, while this information can be somewhat helpful, it is much too jargon heavy and unclear from the start. To get someone to look at this sooner, clarify why Greene is involved in this at all, as there is no mention of who he is or what your relationship is to him. This is to clear up anyone's confusion about why the public needs to hear about this and what is happening.

Unfortunately, since I don't cover Oregon news, I don't have access to Oregon court records or filings which I would normally do to follow up or look into things more.

I wish you well and good luck.
