Re: Petition for Public Records Disclosure Order
Oregon Department of Corrections
DOJ File No. 291011-GA0129-16

Dear Mr. Birk:

This letter is the Attorney General's order on your October 25, 2016, petition for disclosure under the Oregon Public Records Law, ORS 192.410 to 192.505. Your petition, sent on behalf of William Birhanzl, asks the Attorney General to order the Oregon Department of Corrections (ODOC) to produce various records related to a misconduct report.

We respectfully deny your petition as moot: We spoke with Sherry Iles, executive assistant to the Two Rivers Correctional Facility superintendent. Ms. Iles told us that ODOC has now received payment to fulfill this records request, has processed the request, and has sent you the responsive records.

Sincerely,

Frederick M. Boss
Deputy Attorney General
