Re: Petition for Public Records Disclosure Order
Oregon Secretary of State
DOJ File No.: 165001-GA0094-23

Dear Ms. Borrud:

This letter is the Attorney General's response to your petition for disclosure under the Oregon Public Records Law, ORS 192.311 to 192.478. Your petition asks the Attorney General to order the Oregon Secretary of State (SOS) to disclose the closed case files for the Elections Division's recent investigation of the Democratic Party of Oregon. According to your petition, SOS informed you that all responsive records that have not previously released were transferred to DOJ.[1]

Any person who has been denied the right to inspect or to receive a copy of any public records of a state agency may petition the Attorney General to determine whether the records may be withheld from public disclosure. See ORS 192.411(1). However, if the public records at issue are in the custody of an elected official, then "no petition to require disclosure may be filed with the Attorney General," and if a petition is filed, "it shall not be considered by the Attorney General * * *." ORS 192.427. Because your petition seeks records in the custody of the Office of the Secretary of State, an elective office,[2] we lack jurisdiction to consider your appeal and must respectfully dismiss your petition.

[1] You also requested the same records from DOJ, but that request was denied by this office because the records were compiled by DOJ as part of an ongoing criminal investigation. See ORS 192.345(3). That denial may be challenged in circuit court. See ORS 192.427.

Sincerely,

Lisa M. Udland

[2] Due to the recent resignation of the elected Secretary of State, an unelected Acting Secretary currently hold the office. However, we have previously concluded that when considering the application of ORS 192.427, "it is necessary to look to the character of the office itself, rather than the means by which the individual in that office was selected." Public Records Order, Nov 3, 1995, Larson. Because the Office of the Secretary of State is an elective office, we conclude that ORS 192.427 prohibits the Attorney General from considering your petition.
