Re: Petition for Public Records Disclosure Order:
Portland State University Records

Dear Mr. Spice:

This letter is the Attorney General's order on your petition under the Oregon Public Records Law, ORS 192.410 to 192.505. Your petition, which we received December 22, 1992,[1/] asks the Attorney General to order Portland State University (PSU) to waive its fees for inspection or copying of the 1991-92 computer printouts of grade distributions.

Dr. Roderic Diman, PSU Vice Provost, has advised us that PSU has reconsidered its November 24, 1992, decision and has elected to waive the fees necessarily incurred in editing the 1991-92 grade distribution printouts. It is our understanding that you will be hearing directly from PSU officials with regard to this matter.

Accordingly, your petition is denied as moot.
