Re: Petition for Public Records Disclosure Order -- Executive Department Records

Dear Mr. Stark:

On April 5, 1990, we received your petition under Oregon's Public Records Law for the Attorney General to order the Executive Department to disclose reports of the persons assigned to investigate the facts regarding two 1989 personnel actions grieved by your client, Dale Weinstein: notes and minutes of any meetings conducted as a part of the investigation; and internal memoranda relating to either grievance and containing findings of fact.

Ms. DaVetta Paynter, the Personnel Analyst who conducted the investigation, has informed us that the Executive Department is forwarding you copies of all documents in the department's custody that fall within the scope of your request. Accordingly, your petition is now moot.

Sincerely,

PAMELA L. ABERNETHY
Special Counsel to the Attorney General
