Re: Public Records Disclosure Petition

Dear Mr. Persons:

This letter responds to your February 29, 1988 petition for an Attorney General's public records disclosure order, and confirms a March 11, 1988 phone conversation.

Your petition asks the Attorney General to order the Eastern Oregon Correctional Institution (EOCI) to disclose minutes of a February 14, 1988 meeting between you and EOCI officials. There is no need for the Attorney General to act on your petition, because EOCI voluntarily will disclose the record you seek to inspect.

On March 11, 1988, I was informed by Assistant Attorney General Jef Van Valkenburg that EOCI, after having the opportunity to discuss this matter with counsel, had decided to make the disclosure you seek. EOCI promptly will make minutes of your February 19 meeting available to you. Therefore your petition is respectfully denied as moot.

If you have questions, please call Assistant Attorney General Van Valkenburg (373-7044) or me.

Very truly yours,

James E. Mountain Jr.
