Re: Request for Disclosure of Public Records
Department of Justice

Dear Mr. Kane:

This responds to your March 8, 1988 request for:

" . . . any document indicating a telephone conversation between a Department of Justice attorney and Rep. [Bob] Picard [sic] concerning legality of the executive committee meeting/action."

No such record exists because, as we previously have informed others, no such conversation took place. Two members of the Attorney General's staff, Marla Rae and Phil Lemman, spoke with Representative Pickard concerning this issue generally. Neither is an attorney and neither advised Representative Pickard regarding the legality of the Bend School Board's actions.

Respectfully,

James E. Mountain Jr
