Re: Petition of Raleigh C. Lund to Inspect Employment Division SEARCH Computer Programs and Reproduce a Copy Thereof.

Dear Sir:

This letter will serve as an order for review and inspection by the Attorney General under the provision of ORS 192.450.

Raleigh C. Lund requested a copy of the computer program produced and copyrighted by the Oregon Employment Division dealing with Systems Exploration and Research for Career Help (SEARCH) program.

This computer program is not protected from disclosure under the Public Records Law of the State of Oregon. However, it is copyrighted material and the copyright has been assigned by the Employment Division to the federal government. Use of this material is governed by the copyright laws of the United States. For information regarding your proposed use, it is suggested you contact:

Joseph Seiler, Chief
Division of Testing
U.S. Department of Labor
Patrick Henry Building, Room 8402
601-D Street N.W.
Washington D.C. 20213

The Employment Division will permit you to inspect and furnish a copy of the material it has in its possession upon payment of the appropriate fees as provided and established under ORS 192.440(2) and it is so ORDERED.
