District Attorney—

Just one point of clarification. The proposed fee is not for any attorney time. The fee is for IT personnel only to comply with the request.

Please let me know if there is any additional information that would aid in the determination.

To the District Attorney:

This email is a petition for a Public Records Order under ORS 192.415<https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/38J4N9C9/XBSG>, ORS 192.411<https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/38J4N9C9/4GM8>, ORS 192.324(6)<https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/38J4N9C9/N8N0>, and ORS 192.407<https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/38J4N9C9/FJ6M>. The petition is attached as a PDF.

The public body is the Special Districts Association of Oregon<https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/38J4N9C9/3W53>, with its offices in Salem. It has denied my public records request of October 31, 2026 with a fee of $944, at $236 an hour for its Assistant General Counsel to search two Oregon State Police accounts for five terms, payable by check before the search is run. It has not decided the fee waiver the request asked for. The fee is a constructive denial.

Every record of the request is published at openrecordsoregon.org<https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/38J4N9C9/3W53>.
Respectfully,

Robert Samuel White
