Hi Kyle,
Thank you for all of your help with the incident at Sunset Beach. I think the public information went out smoothly. I hope it went well on your end. One question I have is to double check what we should share internally with staff for situational awareness. If there are specific details that we should hold back, let us know. I would hope that the broad strokes can still be shared for safety. Happy to set up a time to chat to better understand how best to work together on communication.

Take care,
Stefanie
