FROM	James Neff
TO	Robert Samuel White
DATE	November 12, 2026, 1:52 PM PT
SUBJECT	Re: The Attorney General's public records orders

Hi, I received it and read it fairly closely. It is interested. Is the trend is more denials, as a percentage of replies--do I have that right?
Jim

On Thu, Nov 12, 2026 at 12:58 PM Robert Samuel White <rsw@rswfire.com> wrote:

> Mx. Neff:
>
> On November 8, I wrote to you about what forty-five years of the Attorney > General's public records orders > <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/6MMR> show.1 I sent you the > article <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/876Z>, a spreadsheet of > every order <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/E7YZ>, and the > source for every figure <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/Z7G2>.
> Since January 2025, the Attorney General's office has made an agency > release a record in 6 of its 282 orders.2 Those records belong to the > public. The Attorney General's office is the one place a person can make an > agency hand them over without going to court, and it almost never does. I > am asking the press to do something about that.
>
> I wrote to 63 reporters, editors, newsrooms, and press organizations. Not > one has responded. I now keep a public record of those letters, the Press > Response Tracker <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/PJC4>, with > the date of each and whether it has had a response.3 Your name is on it.
> When you respond, your response will be published there in full, in your > words.
>
> The orders are public. The State of Oregon Law Library > <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/Z7G2> publishes every one of > them, and every figure I sent you links to the orders it counts.4 Nothing > about this can be hidden except by silence. What keeps it from the public > now is that the people whose work is to report it have said nothing.
>

> I am not asking anyone to report this on my word. Check every figure > against the orders; that is what the links are for, and it is what I want > you to do. Checking takes time. Telling me you received the letter and are > taking it seriously takes one line, and a person who writes to you is owed > that much. I am asking for it, and for your answer on the record: will you > report what these orders show? If you will not, why not?
> Respectfully,
> Robert Samuel White
> Public Records Requestor > rswfire.com <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/N4P0> > openrecordsoregon.org <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/Z5YK> > autonomyrealms.com <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/JKEM> > Sources
>
> 1. My letter to you, “The Attorney General’s public records orders,” > November 8, 2026
> 2. “The Attorney General Is the Last Stop Before Court,” > OpenRecordsOregon.org, November 7, 2026
> <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/876Z>
> 3. Press Response Tracker, OpenRecordsOregon.org
> <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/PJC4>
> 4. Attorney General’s Public Records Orders, State of Oregon Law > Library <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/Z7G2>
>
> Responses to this letter are tracked publicly on the Press Response > Tracker <https://openrecordsoregon.org/r/4D56CKQA/PJC4>.
> 01M78RV5Y00WGDE6VZPNC5E92S
>