Robert,

Thanks for your email. The Knight Institute is a small non-profit that takes on relatively few legal cases at any one time, and we pick those cases based on the likelihood that they'll advance our mission. We won't be able to help you out in your case (although it seems that you're actually looking for help from reporters, rather than from an impact litigation team?). That said, you might try writing the ACLU of Oregon to see whether they can help.

Best of luck,
Alex
